

Student comments- PAR 115: Introduction to Ethics (Summer 2020)

Complete, unedited student comments for the course:

-I really enjoyed taking Dr. Smithson's class. He is an incredibly responsive and caring professor, and his lectures are engaging and personal— even through an online format. I would absolutely take another class of his.

-Great professor!

-A great teacher who helped me learn more on the subject!

-This class is one of my favorite courses that I have taken throughout my college experiences. I think what helped me most was the feedback you provided on papers, and throughout discussions. Not only did my writing and thinking process improve, but I also became more confident in knowing that I can depend on a teacher when I feel confused or lost in class. You were never late when responding to anything turned in, you were very on top of grading and making sure that students were aware of things going on outside the class. Thank you for being a great teacher and for understanding that not every person in your class was going to be on the same level. Your lectures were also great!! Overall, I would recommend this class and you as a professor any day of the week! Thank you again! I hope you have a great fall semester. -

-Awesome teacher

-Dr. Smithson is an exceptional instructor! I appreciate his ability to propose a wide range of perspectives while still being inclusive and approachable. This is my second course with him and I would absolutely register for more of his classes.

-Great experience, especially with Covid-19 going on. Thank you for the experience.

-Love having your class really made me think about life. Also just a great professor!

-Generally, I do not like online classes, but I had a good time with this one. This course works very well online, and the way the course is laid out on Canvas should be the gold standard. My only real criticism is that the microphone used to record the lectures could be improved a lot with even a cheap upgrade. The current one clips when the instructor raises his voice to emphasize a point, and echoes significantly.

-I really enjoyed this class.
